Information report submitted to the office of student rights and responsibilities.

Student meets with an administrator to review the report and explain the process.

Community review board holds a hearing to determine if there was a violation and if so, a sanction.

A determination is based on preponderance of the evidence.

The board determines that the student is not responsible, process ends.

The board determines that the student is responsible for a violation of the Code of Conduct.

Student found responsible and assigned sanctions. Student completes sanction(s), process ends.

Student found responsible and assigned sanctions. Student appeals findings and/or sanctions.

Option to appeal in writing to the dean of students office.

PREPONDERANCE OF THE EVIDENCE
The standard used to determine whether or not a student is responsible for a policy violation. This means that according to the conduct administrator the reported actions more likely occurred than not.

COMMUNITY REVIEW BOARD (CRB)
The board consists of trained students, faculty and staff to serve in hearing alleged violations of the Code of Conduct.

SANCTIONS
These are specific requirements or a status assigned to a student who has been found responsible for a violation.